Year's Best US Chardonnays

90 | Dr. Konstantin Frank

2016 Finger Lakes Hilda Chardonnay Named for Konstantin Frank's daughter, this chardonnay is refreshingly lean. It blends a leesy Weetabix note with flavors that are at once salty and lemony; a mouthwatering white for trout. Reviewed by Patrick J. Comiskey.

91 | Dr. Konstantin Frank

2016 Finger Lakes Margrit Dry Riesling "Fruit that knows how to party" is how one taster described this wine, noting how the peach, pear and dried apple fruit last in harmony, carried by firm, tense acids. A clean, fresh riesling for brook trout. Reviewed by Patrick J. Comiskey.
