

Dr. Konstantin Frank Rkatsiteli

About the variety...

One of the oldest vinifera grapes known to man. Pronounced er-ka-tsee-tely, this grape comes originally from the Republic of Georgia.

- Delicate variety resistant to cold winter conditions
- It always retains good acidity levels, even in hot summers
- Rarely sees oak
- Very versatile grape able to produce table wines, sparkling, sweet and fortified styles
- Typical notes: refreshing with crisp green apple and hints of white peach and light spiciness
