Year's Best Summer Sparklers

"After a few moments of funky confusion, this sparkler locks into place like a signal on a radar screen. A blend of mostly pinot noir and chardonnay, with a dollop of pinot meunier, it's bright and nervy, with bracing notes of citrus and salt and a mildly leesy savor. It has the tension and clarity to pair with whitefish, like sole."

WINE ADVOCATE

"This combines rich fruit with good acidity, making a consumer-friendly sparkler that tastes great yet still has some distinction. This is the sexiest of the sparklers, although not the most intense or complex. This should easily last another decade, more perhaps. It is young and vibrant today."
