2019 PINOT GRIS

"A sturdy Pinot Gris, it is textured with silk on the somewhat tense finish. This seems quite dry, but not austere. It feels reasonably full on the palate and lingers nicely, pure, sunny and tasty. This isn't a deep wine, but it often seems bigger than it is. It is a lovely offering at a nice price point. Under screw cap, it should hold pretty well, maybe even better than indicated. I doubt this will improve enough to merit an uptick in score, but it certainly has some room to develop if you hold it."
